

Dear Commissioner,

I am writing concerning the Downed Animal Protection Act with the Docket # 98P-0151/CP1. I am a junior at Eldorado High School, and as a part of the curriculum, I read The Jungle by Upton Sinclair, where I became aware of the dangers of downed animals for American consumers. To my understanding downed animals became illegal in the Food and Drug Act in 1906. I am surprised that the situation still exists, and I am definitely for the Downed Protection Act.

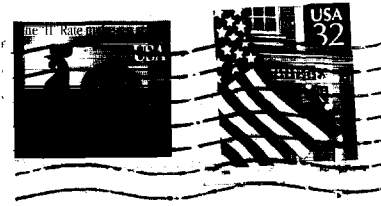

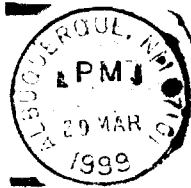

Sincerely,
